MAKARIA

KARAMU

The feast of simple things

Karamu is a Swahili word referring to a feast, a celebration and the joy of gathering around the table. It comes from the Arabic karam, meaning “generosity”.

This new Makaria collection takes the form of a feast, celebrating everyday life and the joy of sharing.

CERAMIC COMMISSIONS

I create bespoke ceramic pieces and ceramic murals, always in the visual language and style of Makaria.
Custom pieces usually begin with one of my existing works. From there, we can adapt the design to your idea, story or a particular space.

To discuss possibilities, sizes or a quote, please write to contacto@makaria-artist.com.

PRACTICAL INFORMATION

Makaria Karamu pieces are made of earthenware.

Each piece is shaped by a potter, then painted and glazed by hand by Makaria. This brings together traditional crafts we wish to preserve and contemporary art.

The pieces are food-safe and suitable for use in the dishwasher and microwave.

Each piece has small imperfections and irregularities that are part of the craft process, expressing the beauty of the handmade.

HOW DO I PLACE AN ORDER?

- Email contacto@makaria-artist.com
- Complete the form we will send you.
- You will receive a quote, payment details and an estimated delivery time.

PLEASE NOTE: Shipping is available for orders of €120 or more. There is no minimum purchase for collection from the studio.
